

The IEEE Russia North West Section members are IEEE members - professionals and students in Electrical and Electronic Engineering representing higher education institutions, industrial companies and enterprises located in the North West Region of the Russian Federation.